

Church Growth Assignments & Exams

Written Assignments can be left in my office, Room 9 or e-mailed to: jimpark@aiaas.edu.

1. Observation Paper—Due every Monday and Wednesday at 5:00 p.m.

The primary work of the class will be for the student to look carefully at selected texts of Scripture and the Spirit of Prophecy and then write a two page reflection paper structured in the following way:

Page One: Double Spaced.

Observations: Carefully note down all the items you observed about the text.

Example: Psalms 1:

It is the first Psalm in the Bible.

The Psalm begins with the word “Blessed.”

The word “way” is used three times.

Page Two:

Interpretation/Meaning: Now give a one-half page summary about what you have observed:

Example: Psalms 1:

This Psalm talks about two different types of people who either chose the way of the wicked or the way of the righteous.

Personal Application: Now give a one-half page summary how the study of the text has or will affect your life and ministry:

Example: Psalms 1:

I need to take more time to meditate upon the word of the Lord.

2. Article Report—Due every Tuesday and Thursday at the beginning of class.

Write a one page book report on the weekly reading assignment by answering these two basic questions:

What was the central message of the article?

How can the article be applied to your life and ministry?

Final Exam

There will be one final exam based on the principles you have learned in the class over the quarter. You will be asked to observe, interpret and apply one text of Scripture or the Spirit of Prophecy
